

HISTORIC INDEPENDENCE DAY

Old Sturbridge Village marks the July Fourth holiday with day and evening celebrations featuring fife and drum music, militia marching and readings of the Declaration of Independence. Daytime activities include sack races, pie-eating contests, magic shows and music. The evening program, running from 4:30-7 p.m., features music, magic and family games, capped off by a 30-minute fireworks display. Tickets are $15 for the evening program. The rain date is July 5.
